Dear Edgewood Families,

On January 8, 2002, the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLB) was signed into law. Section 1111(h)(6)(A) states that as a parent of a student at Edgewood Elementary, receiving Title I funds, you have the right to know the professional qualifications of the classroom teachers instructing your child. Federal law requires the school division to provide you this information in a timely manner upon request. Specifically, you have the right to request the following information about each of your child's classroom teachers:

- Whether the teacher meets the state qualifications and licensing criteria for the grades and subjects he or she teaches.
  - ◊ All of our Edgewood teachers are highly qualified in the areas for which they are the teacher of record.
- Whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or provisional status because of special circumstances.
  - ◊ We have no teachers in this category.
- The teacher's college major, whether the teacher has any advanced degrees, and the field of discipline of the certification or degree.
  - ◊ We have appropriately certified teachers who have earned their college degrees from various colleges and universities.
- Whether paraprofessionals provide services to your child and, if so, their qualifications.
  - ◊ We have several instructional paraprofessionals who support our children under the direct planning of the classroom teachers. They are all highly qualified for their positions.

If you would like to receive any further information, please contact me, either by phone at (330) 988-1111, or in writing.

Sincerely,

Bradley Warner, Principal
